

A-Plus Open Program

The A-Plus Program is a professional development program designed for managers, people and culture leaders, and diversity and inclusion professionals. It provides the knowledge and tools needed to create sustainable and meaningful change for Autistic and neurodivergent people across the employee lifecycle.

The program follows a blended learning approach, combining self-paced modules with facilitated workshops to help participants build knowledge at their own pace while developing practical, actionable strategies.

YOUR LEARNING EXPERIENCE

The A-Plus Open Program offers flexible learning opportunities throughout the year, allowing individuals to enroll based on personal availability and to learn with others.

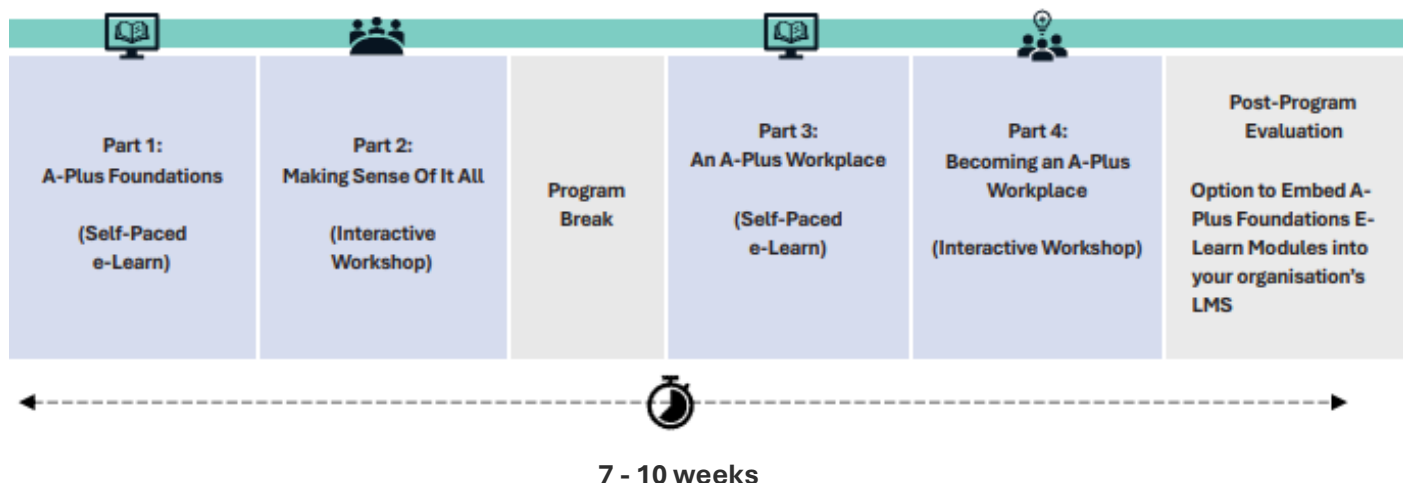

You'll engage with a diverse group of participants from various industries and backgrounds, creating a collaborative environment that encourages the exchange of valuable insights and perspectives.

By taking part, you'll gain practical knowledge you can immediately apply to drive positive change within your workplace.

WHY CHOOSE THE A-PLUS OPEN PROGRAM?

- Developed with Autistic people
The program is co-designed with lived experience to ensure authenticity, depth, and relevance.
- Evidence-informed content
Built on best practice, emerging research, and real-world insights from Autistic people and inclusive workplaces.
- Flexible and accessible format
Includes self-paced learning and live, expert-facilitated workshops.
- Guided by the A-Plus Framework
A structured tool to help you assess your current practice, identify opportunities, and build sustainable change.
- Personalised action plan
Walk away with a practical roadmap to apply what you've learned in your role, team, or broader workplace.
