

Understanding Neurodiversity

Inclusion training

Amaze's Understanding Neurodiversity session helps organisations build confidence, knowledge and respectful language to create inclusive places for neurodivergent people.

What this neurodiversity awareness training covers

This 1-hour session introduces the key ideas behind neurodiversity and why they matter. It builds understanding of the neurodivergent experience, introduces neurodiversity-affirming language, and shows how these concepts strengthen inclusion across teams and customer settings.

What you'll learn

You'll learn how to:

- build a clear understanding of what neurodiversity means in organisation and community contexts
- use respectful terminology and language to talk about neurodiversity, neurodivergence and the neurodivergent experience
- develop insight into differences in communication, sensory processing and information processing for neurodivergent people.

Who should attend

Ideal for anyone seeking a foundational understanding of neurodiversity and inclusive practice.
